

MA IN HISTORY, POLITICS AND RELIGION (TAUGHT IN BULGARIAN)

Brief presentation of the program: The master degree is within the sphere of humanities and emphasized on history and religion. Education in the humanities is one of the oldest and most basic academic educations around the world, history and the role of religion in national and global politics are some of the latest and discussed problems in the modern world. Due to its interdisciplinary nature, the program offers graduate courses not only from the department of "History" but also from other departments at NBU. With its three specializations: "Age of transition", "Religion in History" and "Public and social policy - history and contemporary issues", the program has a strong pragmatic orientation and therefore is attractive because it makes graduate students competitive in the labor market
